

Help us create a tribute to the working watermen and women of Hatteras Island for Day at the Docks.

The Waterman Project

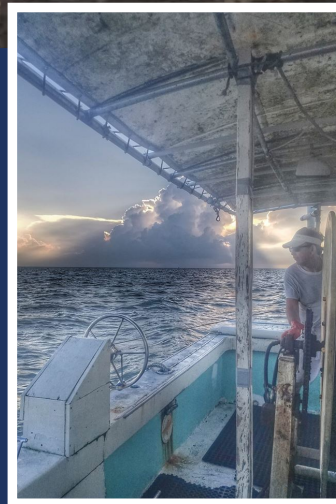

MY FATHER IS A WATERMAN.

My father, Rueben Trant , has been a commercial fisherman for 40 yersars in the waters off Cape Hatteras. It's a hard life, even dangerous at times, but he would never trade it... ~Julia Everheart

See the full story at our exhibit.

Submit your tribute, big or small. Notepaper or hand drawn in a $1 frame, matted and framed photo on an easel. Who are they, what do they do?

Details at hatterasonmymind.com

Day at the Docks 2018
Waterman Project

My _____ is a waterman/woman.

father

mother

wife

husband

brother

sister

best friend

Help us create a tribute to the working watermen and women of Hatteras Island for Day at the Docks. Submit your tribute, big or small. Notepaper or hand drawn in a $1 frame, matted and framed photo on an easel. It doesn't matter how fancy or plain, big, small, handwritten, typed... it's your tribute! Who are they, what do they do?

You can pay tribute to as many watermen/woman as you like!

Submissions can be made to:

hatterasevents@yahoo.com hatterasuninterrupted@gmail.com or dropped off at Hatteras Village library in Hatteras or

Coastal Animal Hospital in Buxton

Please submit your tributes before September 10th, 2018. Please include the following form with your submission. Details at hatterasonmymind.com

Day at the Docks Waterman Project

Name

Address

Phone or email

Waterman/woman paying tribute to:

After Day at the Docks, I would like to:

_____ pick my tribute up at the end of the day _____ pick my tribute up at the library/community building in Hatteras _____ pick my tribute up at Coastal Animal Hospital in Buxton _____ other

The Day at the Docks committee reserves the right to decline to display any tribute found inappropriate or in poor taste. They are not responsible for tributes not picked up with a week of the event.

Signed _____